HAIR BRUSHES—The largest variety in Frankfort at
DR. MILLER'S Drug Store.

DYSPEPSY.

AS SHOWN by the statements of the Board of Health of New York, caused the death of 76 percent of 911 deaths, in one week, and 121 deaths
by consumption induced by Dyspepsia. As it is well attested fact that Dyspepsia is the origin of the suffering of a large portion of those who die of consumption, it becomes the duty of every one to use such precautions against, and remedy for Dyspepsia, as science and experience have placed before them, and which have proved to be efficacious; of this character is "Dr. Williams' Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir," in corroboration of which, read the following testimony:

Testimony of Mr. Edward H. Rowley, of the firm of Rowley, Ashburner & Co., 14 North Wharves, in proof of the efficacy of Williams' Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

PHILADELPHIA, October 29, 1849.
Dr. JAMES WILLIAMS—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in recommending your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, for the cure of Dyspepsia. I have taken it myself for the disease, and have been entirely cured.
Yours, respectfully,
EDWARD H. ROWLEY.

It is with great gratification that I testify to the efficacy of "Williams' Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir," which you so strongly recommended to me, and for which I now testify to its efficacy; it has completely restored my health, which I cheerfully publicly acknowledge,
with the hope that others may be similarly benefited.
FRANKLIN EYRE.

KENSINGTON, Sept. 12, 1850.
Dr. JAMES WILLIAMS—Dear Sir: Having suffered for a long time from Dyspepsia so severely that I was completely prostrated, and having tried every means known to me, I was advised to use your "Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir." It afforded me much pleasure to inform you that I am entirely cured by its use,
and I cordially recommend it to all persons suffering from Dyspepsia.
GEORGE WOODRUFF.

CORNWALL'S HALF-WAY HOUSE, Bristol Turpin.
Testimony of Mr. Abner Elmes, Market street, above Sixth, corroborative of the efficacy of Williams' Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Dr. JAMES WILLIAMS—Dear Sir: It gives me great pleasure to know that you are again preparing your medicine for the cure of Dyspepsia, for many of my acquaintances have repeatedly asked me, and I have been compelled, knowing that I had been cured by it.
As I think that a public acknowledgment of the great benefit I have received from the use of your medicine is not only due to you, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was compelled to restrict myself to the simplest food, and even that I could not digest; I felt a loss of strength, disinclination to exertion, and as you have it in your advertisement, a general feeling of depression and indescribable weariness.
In the year 1838, hearing from others high recommendations of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most happy effect; under its influence, languor and weariness gradually passed away, and my appetite returned, which could gratify with pleasure. Ten years have now elapsed, and my confidence in the curative powers of your medicine has been increased, for it completely cured me, and I failed to obtain relief from any other source.
Very respectfully yours,
ABNER ELMES.

The "Elixir" is sold in bottles at $1 each, or six bottles for $5. Proprietors, JAMES WILLIAMS, M. D., Chemist and Pharmacist, No. 4 South 7th st., Philadelphia.
For sale by all Druggists. [a23 wkt-wt]

FOR THE CURE OF FEMALE AND OTHER DISeases—containing and chronic—including Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Lungs and Kidneys, Piles, etc., etc.
In female diseases, especially when used in connection with my ALTERNATIVE AND WOMAN'S FRIEND, this medicine has been highly successful.

The "Ne Plus Ultra" has been used extensively for ten years, and wherever used, it has sustained its claim to be a "Ne Plus Ultra"—"Nothing beyond it." It is nothing new. In evidence, I refer to Judge Walker, Walker, Joseph, Mountjoy, Dudley George, William
George John Walker, George Williams, John Repp, Miss Mary, John, Neville, Daniel, Sullivan, and Thomas Elliston, Esqrs., all of Anderson county, Ky.; post-office, Lawrenceburg. In Shelby county,
Ky., I refer to Elijah Gallahan, Abraham Meeks, Robert Miller, Wm. Watts, Thomas Morton, and Arch. Pulliam; post-office, Mount Eden. At Gratiotburg, Shelby county, I refer to the postmaster, and every one and every one. In Spencer, Ky., post-office, Malon Shield. The former was fifteen months in bed under several physicians; the latter, sick for years with disease of the lungs and kidneys. In Mercer co.,
I refer to Mr. John Finnell, Mr. Brewer, Thomas Smith, John Smith, James Smith, and others; postoffice, also, also, also, also, also, also, also, also, also,
Miss Mary, Dudley, Pleasant Hill, Ky.; Richard Burks, John Burks, and Floyd Burks, Harrodsburg, Ky.; the former of whom I refer to for perhaps twenty years, and the latter, post-office, Sellersburg, Ky.; I refer, also, to Joseph Elliston, Esq., Knobnoster, Missouri.

The above were either sick themselves, or their wife or children were suffering, and include nearly every chronic disease. Several had female diseases and some of the ladies were confined to bed for years in fits, I refer to Enoch Yates, Esq., post-office, Har-risonville, Ky.; also, to Abraham Meeks, Esq., Mt.
Eden. In this disease, I can refer to the first and most respectable families in the State. In female diseases, I can refer to ladies who have been confined to bed for eight and ten years, and were restored (very often) in a few days. These things look strange, and some may not believe them true; but those who will write to me can be satisfied. I will refer them to persons who had fits from five to twenty years' confinement, and who, at once, I will refer them to advised of their affairs. And having determined to have all his briefs and arguments in the Court of Appeals prepared, and copies furnished to his clients and counsel in the lower courts, all concerned will be fully informed how his duty has been performed.

He will as Commissioner of Deeds, take the acknowledgments of deeds, and other writing to be used or recorded in other States; and as Commissioner under the act of Congress, attend to the taking of depositions, affidavits, &c.

Nominations for State Officers.

In accordance with an intention heretofore stated to post our readers as to all the political movements and nominations made through the newspapers of the State, we publish in this issue several communications and editorials from various sources, setting forth the merits and claims of distinguished Democrats for positions on our State ticket in 1859. One of our correspondents, from the Green River country, nominates our gallant and gifted friend, Capt. John Donan, of Hart, for Attorney General. A correspondent of the Louisville Democrat presents in a forcible manner, the claims of Hon. Beriah Magoffin, of Mercer, for the Democratic nomination for Governor; one of our own correspondents claims the same position for Geo. T. Wood, Esq., of Hart, as we have elsewhere mentioned, and the Columbus Citizen, like all the other papers of the First District, comes out editorially in favor of Col. Preston. The Maysville Express, the organ of the Democracy of the Ninth Congressional District, in an editorial which we commend to our readers, speaks in merited terms of Capt. W. E. Simms, of Bourbon, for the nomination for Lieut. Governor, while the Owensboro Democrat has expressed itself decidedly for Hon. E. Dudley Walker, of Ohio county, for the same post. The latter paper has hoisted the ticket of Col. Wm. Preston for Governor, and E. Dudley Walker for Lieut. Governor, subject to the decision of a Convention, to its mast-head. Nominations are coming in thick and fast, but the discussion of the respective claims of the rival aspirants has been, so far, conducted with moderation and in good taste. The canvass is becoming very interesting—but no storms threaten in the unclouded sky of Democracy.

A communication will be found in another column, presenting the name of George T. Wood, Esq., of Hart county, as a suitable candidate for Governor. Mr. Wood is favorably known to the Democracy of the whole State as a man of ability and sterling worth. He was one of that gallant band of old-line Whigs who early took a bold stand against the heresies of Know-Nothingism, and nobly rallied under the Democratic flag.

Mr. Wood is, personally, very popular, and there is no man whom it would give us greater pleasure to support, if he should be the nominee of the 8th of January Convention. In our last Convention he was warmly supported by a large portion of the Democracy of the State for the office of clerk of the Court of Appeals. He would make a most excellent Governor.

Ourself.

We return thanks to our editorial friends at Bardonia and Georgetown for the following complimentary notices of our paper:
The Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman has appeared in a new and beautiful dress. There is not a neater paper in the State, either in county, town, or city. The Yeoman is Democratic to the core, and deserves abundant success, for its gallantry and efficiency in every struggle in which the Democracy of the State has been engaged for years. We hope its career in the good work will be a long and successful one.

Bardonia Gazette.

The Frankfort Yeoman comes to us in a new dress of type, and presents a very neat appearance. It has done, and we hope may continue to do, yeoman service for the Democratic party.

Georgetown Gazette.

Vice President Breckinridge.

We find the following in the Louisville Courier's notice of the State Agricultural Fair:

Among the distinguished gentlemen present Wednesday, the man of most mark, though at home on his native heath, was John C. Breckinridge. The "Major," as his old constituents of the Ashland District love to call him, is in the enjoyment of the finest possible health. Young, vigorous, and with the advent promise of a long life, he is only gracefully awaiting the popular call to the chair of State. We noticed ex-Senator Dixon yesterday among the invited guests of the society.

Our veteran cotemporary, the Louisville Daily Democrat, is greatly enlarged and otherwise improved. It affords us pleasure to notice this evidence of its prosperity. Its distinguished editor, Col. Harney, has been identified with the Democracy of this State for years past, and is justly regarded as one of our very ablest writers. We wish him the best success in the business management of his paper.

At a political meeting in Cincinnati on Wednesday, a procession was started, and in the course of its wanderings around the city, a half keg of powder exploded, severely injuring three men, Lewis I. Lee, Jas. Hume, and Robt. Kirkus.

VEVAY (IND.) NEWS.—Our young and talented friend, Silas H. Hodges, late of this county, has become associated with B. P. Schenck in the editorial control of the Vevay News—a sound Democratic paper. Mr. Hodges resides in Louisville, his associate at Vevay.

There were 81 deaths from yellow fever in Charleston, S. C., for the week ending Saturday—among them J. L. Hatch, of the Courier.

Progress of Democracy.

Democracy is as young, vigorous, and progressive now as it ever has been. "The assaults of open enemies and the defection of pretended friends are alike unavailing to check its triumphant career."

The State elections which have been held this year show, says the Cincinnati Enquirer, the most astonishing changes in favor of the Democracy and the most brilliant Democratic victories ever witnessed in our political history. 1858 will ever be memorable in this respect. If any one doubts that there has been a tremendous reaction in favor of the Democracy since 1856, let him look at the following facts and figures. The latter do not lie, and their correctness will not be disputed:

New Hampshire, in November, 1856, went against the Democracy by over 6,000 majority. In March, 1858, we were beat less than 3,000. Democratic gain, 3,000.

Connecticut, November, 1856, gave over 10,000 majority against the Democracy, that being the joint preponderance of Fremont's and Fillmore's vote over President Buchanan. In 1858 the whole Fremont and Fillmore opposition beat the Democracy by 2,500 majority. Democratic gain, 7,500.

Missouri gave the Democrats, in November, 1856, over 9,000 majority. In 1858 we carried every Congressman in the State, and beat the opposition some 25,000 votes. Democratic gain, 16,000.

Kentucky was Democratic in November, 1856, by some 7,000 majority. In 1858 she gave the Democracy 13,000 majority. Democratic gain, 6,000.

Arkansas nearly all Democratic in 1856, but still stronger for that party in 1858.

North Carolina, Democratic in 1856, by 11,000 majority. On Governor, in 1858, it was 16,000. Democratic gain, 5,000.

Vermont gave Fremont, in 1856, 28,000 majority. In 1858 the Democracy were only beaten 15,000 on a very large vote. Democratic gain, 13,000.

Maine gave Fremont, in 1856, 28,000 majority over Buchanan. In September, 1858, the Democracy were beaten only 9,000 votes. Democratic gain, 19,000. The Republican vote was 6,000 less than Fremont's, while the Democratic vote was 13,000 greater than Buchanan's.

California, in 1856, gave Fremont and Fillmore 3,000 more votes than Buchanan. In September, 1858, the Democracy elected their State ticket by 8,000 votes over the combined opposition, aided by all the strength of the Broderick faction. We thus find, in the eight States where elections have already been held this year, the Democracy have gained the enormous number of 79,000 votes since 1856. Think of it! What an enormous gain is that 79,000 votes. It is made, too, in all sections of the Union, North, South, East, and West, the greater portion being in the North. In the five free States where the people have voted, the Democrats have gained 54,000 votes since 1856, and in the three slave States 25,000.

This will do for the five months since the Lecompton question was settled in Congress. With a like ratio of increase from now until the next presidential contest, the Democratic banner will wave in triumph over all the isms and factions combined throughout the broad Union. So note it, ye.

The Great Four Mile Race.

One of the best four mile races ever run in the North was that on the Fashion Course, New York, on Monday. Nicholas First, Tar River, and Lizzie McDonald, (Sue Washington), contested it. Tar River won the first heat, and Nicholas the second and third, and the race. In the second heat, the rider of Lizzie McDonald stopped her at the end of the third mile, thinking he had gone the four miles. The gallant mare tried to make up the gap after the rider was told to go on, but it was too late, and she was distanced. The time of the second heat—7:35—is the best ever made north of Mason and Dixon's line. The sweepstakes were worth $3,000. The following is the summary:

Fashion Course, Monday, Sept. 29.—Sweepstakes for all ages—four mile heats; $200 subscription, $100 forfeit, and $1,500 added by the proprietors of the Course.

Nicholas..... 2 1 1
Tar River..... 1 2 2
Lizzie McDonald..... 2 dis.
Time—7:35; 7:35; 7:50.

In the Grand Lodge of the United States of the I. O. O. F., now in session at Baltimore, the question of admitting Polynesians and Chinese into the order, was presented and referred to a special committee. The committee made a lengthy report, and concluded by recommending the adoption of the following resolution, offered by Representative W. K. Edwards, of Indiana:

Resolved, That the terms "free white males," in article 16, section 3, of the constitution, are descriptive of the pure white Caucasian race, and exclude all other races and colors from membership in our order, and that, therefore, Chinese and Polynesians are not eligible to membership.

THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.—A writer in the Montgomery (Ala.) Mail, says there will be a Whig candidate run for President in 1860, and that William C. Rives, of Virginia, is the man, with Hon. Edward Everett as Vice President. The writer in the Mail seems to think that the bare suggestion of this ticket will cause Democracy to tremble in its boots. The Montgomery Confederation, a strong Democratic sheet, playfully replies "perhaps it will, for it has been so used to stamping out Whiggery, that its mention makes them eager for the fray and impatient for the opportunity."

GLASGOW BRANCH BANK.—Geo. W. Traub has been elected President of the branch of the Northern Bank at Glasgow. It goes into operation in December.

It is said that A. Keene Richards, of Scott county, has purchased the renowned English racer Fishman, at the enormous price of $30,000.

Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

We have heretofore expressed our preference for a candidate in the next gubernatorial race, and that is the brilliant Col. Wm. Preston, of Louisville. We do this without detracting from the claims of other aspirants—"noble Romans all"—we are free to say that Col. Preston possesses in an eminent degree all the elements of a successful candidate and an able Governor. It seems to be the desire of the whole Democracy of the State to make him the choice for that position at the next State Convention, which meets at Frankfort. Many of the Democratic papers and several counties in Convention assembled have expressed themselves in favor of Col. Preston. Yet there are other offices to be filled at the next election. We have to make the selection for Lieutenant Governor. For this position we know of a gentleman who would add a tower of strength to the ticket with Col. Preston. We refer to the Hon. E. Dudley Walker, of Ohio county. He was a representative in the tuckian, and is the present Representative in the State Senate from Ohio and Muhlenburg counties. He is widely known throughout Southern Kentucky, and from his having represented Ohio and Muhlenburg counties in the last Kentucky Senate, he is generally known by the Democracy of the State. With those who know him it is useless to urge his claims for the position. To those who do not we give the assurance that he possesses every qualification for the position, and will add great force and strength to the Democratic cause. We know of no one so nearly entitled to the confidence of the Democracy and better qualified for the position, and who could be more fully put upon the ticket with Col. Preston. E. Dudley Walker is an energetic, high-toned gentleman, a sound thinker and an able debater. He possesses an unusual amount of energy, and his soul seems ever fired with an unusual great zeal and enthusiasm for his party, and having been a Democrat from the cradle up, he would make an unusual and energetic canvasser. There is, perhaps, no man who possesses the confidence and esteem of those who know him more than he. On the stump he is keen and sarcastic, with highly pleasing address, and as a man he is universally loved.

We therefore respectfully present to the Democracy of the State the names of Col. Wm. Preston, of Louisville, and E. Dudley Walker, of Ohio county, for Governor and Lieutenant Governor. With such men upon the ticket we could sweep the whole State with irresistible force in 1859, and elect our men by at least 20,000 majority. We proclaim ourselves, therefore, in favor of Preston and Walker, subject to the decision of the Democratic State Convention.—Owensboro Dem.

DEMOCRACY IN MAINE.—The Bangor Democrat tells us that the prospects of Democracy, in that State, are cheering. The Democrats have just given their candidate for Governor about fifty-two thousand votes.—The Republican vote is some sixty-one thousand. In 1856 Mr. Buchanan received but thirty-nine thousand votes in Maine, and Mr. Fremont sixty-seven thousand. The Democratic vote has increased thirteen thousand and the Republican vote has diminished six thousand, in two years. Hurrah for Maine.

Hon. John W. Stevenson is in Frankfort this week attending to professional business in the Court of Appeals.

One thousand dollars Louisville sixes sold at auction in New York, on Monday, at 65.

WHO HAS NOT HEARD OF BERHAYE'S HOLLAND BITTERS?—Simple in its composition, pleasant to the taste, and truly wonderful in its effect, its popularity cannot be wondered at. To invalids just recovering strength, it is invaluable—exercising that soothing influence over the nervous system, and imparting that health and tone to the stomach, so longed for by the convalescent. oc2 t-w&w1 Daily Enterprise.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.—The People's Press, a first rate Democratic weekly, published at Hopkinsville, Ky., speaks as follows concerning Col. Preston as the choice of Trigg, Caldwell, Calloway, Hopkins, Muhlenburg, and Todd counties as the next Democratic candidate for Governor:

The Paducah Herald, Frankfort Yeoman, Louisville Courier, and Bowling Green Standard, with other papers of our party, have expressed preference, and committed themselves for Col. Preston of Louisville, as a candidate of our party in this State for Governor. We should like very much to be with them, but we, as our name indicates, are the People's, and we prefer for them to express their preference, and then we will be left to reflect it. As we have said before, we have no preference for men—our preference is for principles; but we can say this much for Col. Preston: He is undoubtedly the choice of our county, and of Trigg, Caldwell, Calloway, Hopkins, Muhlenburg, and Todd. We have reliable information from these counties, and we believe their delegates to the State Convention will be instructed to vote for him.

COL. WM. PRESTON FOR GOVERNOR.—Col. Wm. Preston, of Louisville, is very favorably spoken of in the upper and middle portions of the State as a suitable person to be elected next Governor of Kentucky. We cannot declare for him at this early day, but we can cheerfully say that we feel he fully deserves the highest eulogium yet pronounced upon him, and will support him to the best of our ability shall he receive the nomination of the Democratic State Convention next March. He is a gentleman of many noble accomplishments and splendid talents; and for several years past has been doing as much service for the Democratic party in Kentucky as the oldest veteran in the ranks.—Columbus Crescent.

CAPT. W. E. SIMMS.—We have heard this eloquent and popular gentleman suggested as a suitable candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Capt. Simms is one of those gallant old Whigs who refused to follow the majority of his party into the embrace of Know-Nothingism; and since the rise of that pernicious organization his voice and his pen have been doing good service in the cause of Democracy. He is a gentleman of enlarged and comprehensive views, of extensive information, a correct thinker, a vigorous and forcible writer, and an accomplished and effective orator. He commanded the Bourbon county volunteers in the Mexican war; and for his conduct in that capacity, he was presented with an elegant and costly sword by his company.—Mays Express.

CAPTAIN J. S. JACKSON.—The Henderson Comm. thinks that this gentleman, who is our present representative, will be the candidate of the opposition for Congress next summer.

Captain Jackson is one of the cleverest gentlemen in the district. We wish him personally all the success imaginable, and we would dislike to have him run for the office spoken of; for if he does, and against our choice, Dr. Peyton, he is sure to be beaten. We think Dr. Peyton will be returned to Congress without opposition.

A correspondent of the Frankfort Yeoman urges Col. J. W. Stevenson for the gubernatorial nomination. Col. Stevenson is, beyond all question, one of the very ablest men in Kentucky or in the Union; and we do not believe that the opposition would make a nomination against him. Maysville Express.

The Frankfort Yeoman, of Tuesday, which was received after the above was in type, contains a Circular from the Central Committee revoking the day previously agreed upon, and fixing the 8th of January as the time for holding the Convention. The Circular will be found elsewhere. The difference is now settled, and we hope that everybody will be satisfied.—Georgetown Gazette.

Rheumatism Cured.
To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may serve suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is.

Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing. This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or if ever afterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense.

This is a vegetable internal remedy which cures the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to use in any state of health—even by the most delicate female or child, and its success, in curing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every rational mind.

This evidence can be had on call at the office; or those at a distance, by addressing the proprietor, will receive, by mail, a circular of evidence. The remedy can be had at $5 per bottle, or five bottles for $20. Persons ordering at a distance can remit at the proprietor's risk by registering letter, and the medicine will be forwarded by express, or as directed, to any place in the United States or Europe.

Numerous cases of Dyspepsia of the most aggravated character which were abandoned as incurable by some of the Medical Faculty, have, by the use of this Elixir, been restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify.
